AN ORDINANCE

DEFINING THE QUALIFICATION OF VOTERS AND CIVIL OFFICERS IN THIS STATE.

Be it ordained by the people of the State of Missouri in Convention assembled, as follows:

SECTION 1. No person shall vote at any election to be hereafter held in this State, under or in pursuance of the Constitution and the laws thereof, whether State, county township or municipal, who shall not in addition to possessing the qualifications already prescribed for electors, previously take an oath in form as follows, namely:
"I—do solemnly swear (or affirm as the case may be) that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Missouri, against all enemies and opposers, whether domestic or foreign; that I will bear true faith, loyalty and allegiance to the United States, and will not, directly or indirectly, give aid or comfort or countenance to the enemies or opposers thereof, or of the Provisional Government of the State of Missouri, any ordinance, law, or resolution of any State Convention or Legislature, or of any order or organization, secret or otherwise, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that I do this with a full and honest determination, pledge and purpose, faithfully to keep and perform the same, without any mental reservation or evasion whatever, and I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have not, since the 17th day of December, A. D. 1861, wilfully taken up arms, or levied war against the United States or against the Provisional Government of the State of Missouri. So help me God."

SEC. 2. Before any person shall be elected or appointed to any civil office within this State under the Constitution and laws thereof, whether State, county, township, municipal or other civil office, he shall take and subscribe the oath in form as follows: "I, A. B., do on an oath (or affirmation) declare that I have not during the present rebellion wilfully taken up arms or levied war against the United States nor against the Provisional Government of the State of Missouri, nor have wilfully adhered to the enemies of either, domestic or foreign, by giving them aid and comfort, but having always in good faith opposed the same; and further that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Missouri against all enemies and opposers, whether domestic or foreign, any ordinance law or resolution of any State Convention or Legislature, or of any order or organization, secret or otherwise, to the contrary notwithstanding, and that I do this with an honest purpose, pledge and determination faithfully to perform the same without any mental reservation or evasion whatever," which oath shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State by all candidates for State offices, and by candidates for all county and other offices in the office of the clerk of the County Court (or other officer charged with equivalent duties) in the counties wherein they respectively reside, at least five days before the day of election, and no vote shall be cast up for, or certificate of election granted to, any candidate who fails to file such oath as required by this ordinance.

SEC. 3. Any person who shall falsely take, or having taken, shall thereupon wilfully violate an oath prescribed by this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof by any court of competent jurisdiction, be adjudged guilty of the crime of perjury, and shall be punished therefor in accordance with existing laws. And it shall be the duty of the judges of all courts having criminal jurisdiction under the laws of this State, specially to charge the Grand Juries in the counties in which such courts shall be held, respectively, and of all Grand Juries in the performance of their duties under the laws of this State, specially to inquire concerning the commission of any act of perjury mentioned or made punishable by this or any other ordinance adopted by this Convention.

SEC. 4. The courts of this State shall require all jurymen and attorneys to take and subscribe the following oath: "I—do solemnly swear —or affirm, as the case may be—that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Missouri, against all enemies and opposers, whether domestic or foreign, that I will bear true faith, loyalty and allegiance to the United States, and will not directly, or indirectly, adhere to the ene-
of Missouri, by giving them aid and comfort, any ordinance, law or resolution of any State Convention or Legislature, or of any order or organization, secret or otherwise, to the contrary notwithstanding; and that I do this with a full and honest determination, pledge and purpose, to keep and perform the same, without any mental reservation or evasion whatever. So help me God." The same oath shall also be taken and subscribed by the president, professors and curators of the University of the State of Missouri, by all bank officers, common school teachers, who are paid in whole or in part out of the funds provided by law, and common school trustees, by all officers of all incorporated companies of this State, and by all licensed or ordained preachers of the Gospel before performing the ceremony of marriage in this State, and filed in any County Clerk's office in this State; and every licensed or ordained preacher of the Gospel who shall perform the ceremony of marriage in this State before taking said oath, and every other person aforesaid assuming to discharge the duties pertaining to his said avocation under the laws of this State, without complying with the provision of this section, shall be liable to prosecution in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State by indictment, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by a fine not less than ten nor more two hundred dollars. This section shall take effect ninety days from the passage of this ordinance.

SEC. 5. That Judges and Clerks of all elections held under the laws of this State shall, in addition to taking the oath required by existing laws, take the further oath that they will not record, nor permit to be recorded, the name of any voter who has not taken the oath required to be taken by the first section of this ordinance.

SEC. 6. The General Assembly of the State may at any time repeal this ordinance or any part thereof.

Passed June 10, A. D. 1862.
The bill continuing the present Provisional Government in power was taken up.

DUTCH CHEESE.—The "farmer's girl" who can make "tip-top Dutch cheese," and tell how it is done, is no doubt an adept in the art. I know a farmer's wife who has made "lots" of it, and think none can make better. She pours boiling water over thick milk in the pans. The curd should be moved gently with a spoon, that the water may reach the bottom of the pan.— The curd and whey will separate in a few minutes; pour off the whey, and if the curd is too tender, pour over it hot water the second time, and move the curd about as at first; then pour off the water and put the curd in a thin, coarse cloth, and hang it up to drain an hour or two; then add salt, a little butter or cream, or both; work it in and make into balls. This way is preferred to heating the milk over the fire, or upon a stove, and is much less work and trouble. Try it, and see if you do not like it better.

What sort of matrimonial existence must Mr. Dent of Winchester, have passed I wonder; who, as soon as his Deborah was graced over, could indite upon her so flippant a couplet as this:
"Here lies the body of Deborah Dent, She kicked up her heels and away she went."

A BAD BOX.—A gentleman who had a snuff-box that played the tunes "Drops of Brandy," and "The Glasses Sparkle on the Board," went to dine with a friend a few miles out of town one Sunday, taking his box in his pocket. He accompanied the family to church, and by some accidental pressure, he, about the middle of the sermon, touched the spring of the box, which stuck up "Drops of Brandy." Every eye was directed towards the spot, to the great dismay of the gentleman, who endeavored to stop the box, but in doing so, only caused it to change the tune, on which he hastened out of the church, the box rattling away as he hurried along the aisle.

CHLORIDE OF LIME AS AN INSECTI-CIDE.—Dingler's Polytechnisches Journal says that sprinkling beds of vegetables with even a weak solution of this salt effectually preserves them from caterpillars, butterflies, mordella, slugs, &c. It has the same effect when sprinkled on the foliage of fruit trees.
A paste of one part of powdered chlo-ride of lime, and one-half part of some fatty matter, placed in a narrow band round the trunk of the tree, prevents insects from creeping up it. It has ever been noticed that rats and mice quit places in which a quantity of chloride of lime has been spread.

WOOL EXHIBITION.—There is to be a great wool show under the supervision of the Ohio State Agricultural Society at its annual exhibition to be held at Cleveland, Sept. 15th to 19th, 1862.
Competition is open to the world.
Wool will be divided into four classes.
1st. Fulling Wools. 2d. Delaine Wools.
3d. Cassimere Wools. 4th. Combing Wools. Twenty-five fleeces must be exhibited to entitle exhibitor to a premium. Mr. S. N. Goodale, of Cleveland, will have charge of this department.

A DEVOTED wooer of the Nine, on hearing of the marriage of a man named Felton, with a lady before the shrine of whose beauty he had been an unsuccessful worshipper, perpetrated the following;

Eliza was a buxom lass As e'er a poet dwelt on,
But would not be content, alas, Until she had been FELT-on."

An old Rocky Mountain trapper was asked one day if he ever seen any petrifications in the mountains, when he replied: "Bless you! I've seen a whole forest, sage bushes and all, petrified—one of the trees had all the leaves on, and a bird sitting on a limb.
He must have been petrified in the spring of the year, for his mouth was open, just as if he was singing."

An Indiana chaplain selected for singing the hymn commencing—Show pity, Lord; oh, Lord, forgive; let repent-ant rebels live.

He had scarcely uttered the last word of this line, when a private soldier in his congregation—an old man a zealous Christian—earnestly cried out: "No, Lord, unless they lay down their arms!"

A business man can sometimes go along for a while without advertising, and so can a wagon without greasing, but it goes hard, and there is a deal of unprofitable squealing and grumbling, if not a break-down before the journey is ended.

Cotton and tobacco are beginning to figure once more among the exports from Tennessee. Sheeting, shirting, shifting, smoking, spitting and snuffing must go on, war or no war.

THE names of houses are for the world outside. When you read "Rose Cottage" on the wall, think of the lot of thorns inside.

Miss Donbs says that the sweetest line she ever read was her Simon's name written in molasses on the front stoop.
